

Rules of good conduct

for visitors to Musei di Fiesole

Musei di Fiesole's cultural heritage belongs to everyone.
Help us to preserve it and ensure a good visiting experience.

Follow these rules:

- do not touch the artefacts and do not lean against the showcases, bases and other elements of the exhibition;
- do not step over protective barriers
- do not disturb other visitors;
- do not consume food or drink inside the Museums;
- do not climb on ancient structures in the Archaeological Area;
- do not climb trees;
- do not leave rubbish of any kind outside the collection bins.

We remind you that it is permitted:

- to take photos and film without using professional equipment (no flash inside the Museums);
- to bring dogs on a leash inside the Archaeological Area, taking care to clean after your dog;
- bring dogs inside the Museums, as long as they are small and you hold them in your arms
- smoking in the Archaeological Area, in the specifically designated spaces.

The Municipality of Fiesole shall not be held responsible for any behaviour or conduct that is not permitted and which may prejudice the safety of visitors.
